Poem For Reflection

“Instructions”

When I have moved beyond you in the adventure of life,
Gather in some pleasant place and there remember me
With spoken words, old and new.

Let a tear fall if you will, but let a smile come quickly
For I have loved the laughter of life.

Do not linger too long in sadness.

Go eat and talk, and when you can;
Follow a woodland trail, climb a high mountain,
Walk along the wild seashore, and
Make the time to stare upon unfamiliar horizons.

Use your hands some bright day
To make a thing of beauty
Or to reach out and help another.

I have climbed the heights of life
I have gazed upon the beauty and wonder this world has to offer and have cherished
Friendships old and new.

Even through the many days to come,
where you don't mention my name
Or no thought of me crosses your mind,
I shall still be with you,
For we have shared love, adventure,
and the precious moments in life together

And when you face some crisis with anguish.
When you walk alone with courage,
When you choose your path of right,
I will be by your side.

Epitaph On A Friend

An honest man here lies at rest,
As e'er God with His image blest:
The friend of man, the friend of truth;
The friend of age, and guide of youth:
Few hearts like his, with virtue warm'd,
Few heads with knowledge so inform'd:
If there's another world, he lives in bliss;
If there is none, he made the best of this.
